Form I-9 Procedure Checklist

Locate a Notary Public.

Notary Publics can be located online at www.123notary.com or found at (including but not limited to): Banks, Federal Express, United States Postal Offices, and Attorney Offices. It is strongly recommended to contact the Notary Public first to ensure they are willing and able to execute Form I-9 responsibilities.

Section 1 - Employee Information and Verification.

Employee: In the presence of the Notary Public, complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9.

Section 2 - Employer Review and Verification.

Employee: Present the Notary Public with the enclosed, "Guarantee, Indemnification and Acknowledgement," which the Notary Public may retain.

Documentation.

The Notary Public will examine your documentation to ensure that you have presented either:
One document from LIST A OR one document from List B AND List C.

The Notary Public will record the document(s) presented under the appropriate List column(s) as underlined on the List of Acceptable Documents. Document Title, Issuing Authority, Document Number, and Expiration Date must be recorded on Form I-9. If a document does not have an Expiration Date, it does not need to be recorded on Form I-9.

The Notary Public must then place their signature, name, title and date in Section 2 where the employer's information is affixed.

Notice to Notary

If you choose to affix your Official Stamp/Seal on the actual Form I-9 Section 2, you do not need to complete Appendix B. If you cannot fit your stamp/seal on the form:

The Notary Public must place their signature, name, title and date in Section 2 where the employer's information is affixed.

Appendix B must be completed and contain an Official Stamp/Seal.

Notice to Employee

Federal Law requires employers to retain a completed Form I-9 for all employees. It is necessary that the checkpoint procedures be followed to ensure completion. Otherwise, your form will be considered "Incomplete", and another Form I-9 will need to be filled out correctly.

Once complete, please fax Form I-9 and supporting documentation presented to the Notary Public which is recorded in Section 2, and Appendix B (if any) to your Credentialing Specialist/Recruiter for review. After review, if Form I-9 is found to meet compliancy standards, you will be contacted with a confirmation that your Employment Eligibility Verification: Form I-9 meets compliancy standards; or if any, what corrections need to be made to reach compliancy standards.

Upon receipt of Form I-9, an E-Verify will be completed for all new employees. E-Verify is an Employment Eligibility Verification Program used to electronically compare and verify employment information taken from Form I-9. (All E-Verifications completed by Assignment America will meet Federal, DHS and SSA standards.)

Instructions

Read all instructions carefully before completing this form.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the United States) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work-authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1-800-255-8155.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, is authorized to work in the United States.

When Should Form I-9 Be Used?

All employees (citizens and noncitizens) hired after November 6, 1986, and working in the United States must complete Form I-9.

Filling Out Form I-9

Section 1, Employee

This part of the form must be completed no later than the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security Number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

Employers should note the work authorization expiration date (if any) shown in Section 1. For employees who indicate an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers are required to reverify employment authorization for employment on or before the date shown. Note that some employees may leave the expiration date blank if they are aliens whose work authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia or the Republic of the Marshall Islands). For such employees, reverification does not apply unless they choose to present in Section 2 evidence of employment authorization that contains an expiration date (e.g., Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766)).

Preparer/Translator Certification

The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his or her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2, Employer

For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors. Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within three business days of the date employment begins. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers cannot specify which document(s) listed on the last page of Form I-9 employees present to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees may present any List A document OR a combination of a List B and a List C document.

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee must present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document listed on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employees must present receipts within three business days of the date employment begins and must present valid replacement documents within 90 days or other specified time.

Employers must record in Section 2:

1. Document title;
2. Issuing authority;
3. Document number;
4. Expiration date, if any; and
5. The date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification in Section 2. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they must be made for all new hires. Photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.

For more detailed information, you may refer to the USCIS Handbook for Employers (Form M-274). You may obtain the handbook using the contact information found under the header "USCIS Forms and Information."

Section 3, Updating and Reverification

Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or reverifying Form I-9. Employers must reverify employment authorization of their employees on or before the work authorization expiration date recorded in Section 1 (if any). Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee.

- A. If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/reverified, complete Block A.
- B. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.
- C. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B; and:
 - 1. Examine any document that reflects the employee is authorized to work in the United States (see List A or C);
 - 2. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any) in Block C; and
 - 3. Complete the signature block.

Note that for reverification purposes, employers have the option of completing a new Form I-9 instead of completing Section 3.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no associated filing fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the Privacy Act Notice below.
